

Heinz Pfister

Owner of Heinz Pfister Consulting

Heinz Pfister was born in 1951, is married, has two children and lives in Arni since 1990.

After getting his degree at University of Zurich (lic.oec.publ.), Heinz started his professional career with a three years training program at UBS. The training mainly focused on different jobs in commercial units of the bank, front- and back offices. The following 7 years he took over different leading positions with up to 100 employees.

1988 Heinz changed to the finance department of Bank Leu where he continued his career to become Head Securities Operations, Custody and Securities Lending. 1999 the operations units of Bank Leu and Credit Suisse were merged and Heinz became Head Transaction Services at CS Group.

2002 Heinz Pfister was asked to switch to Swiss Re, where he was Head Operations Zurich, responsible for all markets with the exception of North America.

2007 Swiss Re decided to outsource Operations Zurich which offered Heinz the chance to retire early and to start his own business.

1981 – 1994 Heinz Pfister was a part time lecturer in economics and since January 1st of this year, he is Mayor of the community of Arni.

The focus of Heinz's consulting activity is all about securities operations including education.
